STILL Celebrating our Golden Anniversary!

Support the Contra Costa Chorale's 50th year by advertising in our concert program.

October 10, 2016

Dear Friend of the Contra Costa Chorale:

The Contra Costa Chorale is celebrating 50 years of quality live performances of classical and contemporary choral music in the Bay Area. Each year the Chorale performs concerts in the fall and spring, and through the years has performed to enthusiastic audiences at the Sleep Train Pavilion, Dean Leshner Regional Center for the Arts, Contra Costa College, and elsewhere in the Bay Area. In 2015, we performed concerts of music from England and Wales, were invited to sing the Star Spangled Banner for the final CAL baseball game, won a competition sponsored by the San Francisco Opera to sing our national anthem at AT&T Park in front of over 30,000 people, and capped the year with a highly acclaimed concert, "Amazing Grace," exploring the Negro spiritual from its African roots to its influence on jazz, swing, and modern-day gospel. In January of 2016 we performed for the Harlem Globetrotters and reprised "Amazing Grace" in Walnut Creek.

In May of this year, as one of our anniversary concerts, we presented "In Praise of Music" that included Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass, Serenade to Music, and Where Everything is Music (composed for that concert by Stephen Main), accompanied by soloists and orchestra. Our membership has increased to 70 singers, and we are singing to full houses. As our member and audience numbers grow, so does the impact of your advertising in our programs.

We invite you to help us celebrate our 50 years by placing an ad in this special anniversary program—and, if you can, please make it special by congratulating the Contra Costa Chorale on its achievement.

For our income we rely entirely on membership dues, concert ticket sales, donations, and the sale of program advertising. Your ad in our program is important, as it directly supports our mission of bringing a vast repertoire of choral music to the public and enriching the arts community in our area.

As a nonprofit organization, we also invite benefactors, sponsors or groups to make a tax deductible contribution to the Contra Costa Chorale to be listed in the program.

For more information or if you have any questions, please email me at ccchorale@att.net or call me at 510-541-6700. Your support is vital to Contra Costa Chorale in order to continue providing quality choral music at affordable prices.

Elmina Green, Program Ad Coordinator
